

BUSINESS AND CORPORATE LAW

We represent business entities and individuals' who are shareholders and members of different business entities. The Firm's attorneys advise on, and help with the negotiation of stock purchase/sale agreements, asset purchase agreements, buy/sell agreements, and the formation of new business entities incorporated in the State of New York, and other related services. We work in conjunction with the corporations and individuals' tax professionals and financial advisors who advise the client of any tax liabilities or ramifications as a result of their business endeavors.

CRIMINAL LAW

We represent individuals in Federal, State and local courts, ranging from minor traffic violations to misdemeanor and felony charges. Our attorneys possess the experience, compassion and dedication to provide our clients with the best possible representation in the most serious and sensitive of matters.

ABOUT SHAW & SHAW

Our attorneys and staff comprise a varied and well-rounded group of dedicated legal professionals. Each attorney is experienced in one or more substantive areas of law. Over the years, Shaw & Shaw's clients have come to rely upon our decades of experience and quality representation.

We have assembled a team of representatives in the fields of Financial Planning, Accounting, Asset Management and Insurance, who can be called upon when needed to address our clients' multifaceted needs. With this approach, the Firm's clientele benefit not only from a legal perspective, but also from the collective resources of related professionals.

We will work side-by-side with you every step of the way, while providing you with a complete range of inter-related legal services.

At Shaw & Shaw, we know that preparation is everything. We work tirelessly prior to stepping foot in the court room because we know that success cannot be attained with short cuts.

OUR SERVICES

REAL ESTATE LAW

We maintain one of the most reputable and responsive real estate practices in Western New York and its surrounding counties. We handle matters which include but are not limited to residential sales, purchases, refinances, commercial purchases, and commercial refinances. We also represent banks in commercial lending matters, and individuals who lend money as private lenders. Our attorneys take an active role with the preparation and review of all necessary documents that are involved in real estate transactions. We take pride in the fact that our attorneys, paralegals, and legal assistants keep clients informed every step of the real estate process. We truly understand that any real estate matter can be stressful for our clients and we try to ease that stress with constant communication and responsiveness.

PERSONAL INJURY/ LITIGATION LAW

We have an active and substantial personal injury practice. We are dedicated to effectively litigate all cases involving personal injury matters, including automobile accidents, slip and fall incidents, and products liability. You can depend upon our integrity, determination and hard work to realize just and fair recoveries for you, our client, irrespective of the size of the claim or its complexity.
